Paul Bennett

Highly motivated and detail-oriented individual looking to move from the import industry into a data analyst role. Passionate about improving workflow and efficiency in the workplace. Experience in Python and JavaScript as well as the Linux environment, and interested in increasing both my data analysis and coding skillsets.

luapttenneb95@gmail.com   516-455-6779   https://github.com/pben95

Work Experience

Freight Processing Clerk
Alba Wheels Up International

Clerical duties, CargoWise and Microsoft Office Suite usage, including Excel formulas and Outlook rules
Ocean freight and trucker payment and billing, cutting checks, endorsing and mailing documents
Calling and emailing partner companies for tracking and delivery information

Shift Supervisor
Lindell Deli & Grocery

Training and supervising employees, handling money, opening and closing store
Accepting product deliveries, paying merchant bills, answering customer complaints

PC Component Reseller
Self Employment

Independently source, research, and buy computer components for resale online (eBay and Reddit)
Keep Excel records on costs, sales, margins and profitability

Education

Stony Brook University, SUNY

Bachelors of Arts (August 2013 - June 2017)
Economics major, Japanese Studies minor
3.28 GPA, Dean's List

Skills

Extensive computer usage, MS Office Suite (Excel formulas, Outlook rules), Python, Lua, CargoWise, Linux and Windows experience, computer and electronic disassembly, basic image and video editing

Reference

Patrick Whelan
pjwhelan123@hotmail.com
516-307-6523